Flowers on Grant's Tomb. The grave of Gen. Grant was not forgotten on Easter Sunday. All day long numbers of people flocked about the sentry who still paces in front of the iron grating which guards the coffin. The gorgeous flowers almost hid the dark-steel casket which the occasional visitor has been wont to see during the Winter months. Inside the tomb the floor was one mass or blooming flowers. The Park Commission emptied an entire wagon load of flowers into the vault in memory of the day. Once a week since the General's death Mrs. Grant has visited his tomb, sometimes bringing flowers to lay beside him. A great hydrangea rising above the other flowers was her gift on Easter Sunday.

A Fiendish Plot.

A remarkable plot to demolish the works of the Louisville Electric Lighting Company, of Louisville, Ky., was discovered last week. A belt 24 inches in width, which connects a large fly-wheel with the dynamos, was cut almost in two. It was sufficiently weakened to have separated when the machines went at full speed, and by a peculiar arrangement would have caused a violent explosion, which would probably have killed every man in the building. Some enomy of the proprietors is suspected.

The Nanticoke Search Finally Abandoned. All hopes of recovering the bodies of the 26 miners entombed at Nanticoke has been given up. A second bore hole has been driven from the tunnel to the main gangway, and it was discovered last week that the latter was filled with quicksand and water. This at once put a stop to all future operations, and it is now re-

About $52 was found to be missing from the the river bank. It is thought they were dighouse. It was subsequently proved that Ibach was himself the thief and took that means of shifting the blame from his own shoulders.

A Big Fish Story.

The biggest fish story of the season comes from Panama. It is to the effect that the British ship Alexander Yeats, Capt. Dunbarn, from Labos for Falmouth, while leaving her anchorage struck heavily upon a shoal and commenced to make water. It was some time before the pumps would suck, but they were got in working order and were gaining on the leak when the influx of water suddenly stopped. The vessel put into Callao, Peru, for examination, and the diver found that a large hole had been knocked in the bottom.

In the hole and completely filling it was the body of a very large fish. It is supposed that while swimming past the vessel it was carried in by the water. At all events the fish saved the vessel and her cargo of 2,000 tons of guano.

A Train Wrecker's Diabolical Work. Collapse of Old Libby Prison. The building known as Libby Prison, at Richmond, Va., which will be remembered with such horror by many Union soldiers, collapsed on the 21st inst. The building has for some time past been used as a fertilizer factory, and the accident was caused by great quantities of weighty matter being stored on the upper floors. The loss in the demolition of the building and the scattering of fertilizing material, it is said, will reach $10,000.

Insane From Fright.

Miss Maggie Cline, the daughter of a farmer of Cabarrus County, N. C., whilst crossing a pasture field one day last week was chased by a vicious bull. The animal came very near overtaking her, and such was the shock to her nerves experienced by fright over the occurrence that her mind gave way. She will be placed in a lunatic asylum.

Is It True?

The Charleston News and Courier states a singular fact. In Portland, Me., a prohibition city of 33,000 inhabitants, the total number of people arrested for crimes committed while intoxicated was 1,320. In Charleston, not a prohibition city, the total number arrested under the same circumstances was 489, and yet the latter has 49,000 inhabitants.

The Great Railroad Strike.

During the past week little of interest has occurred in regard to the strike on the Missouri Pacific. There have been no new outbreaks, and the force of militia has been greatly re-down the chimney, demolishing the stove and fatally injuring Florence Hodgson, aged eight years. Three other girls were seriously hurt, but it is thought they may recover.

Every American who reads this eulogy of his country and of her institutions, will be the better for it. Mr. Carnegie, though foreign born, exhibits an enthusiastic love for the land of his adoption which the native citizen, born to political right and privileges, finds it difficult to understand. In his graphic style he has described the wonderful growth of the country during the past half century, a growth unequalled in history, ancient or modern, which has made the Republic the richest and most prosperous Nation in the world. A vast array of facts and valuable statistics are given, not in dry tables, but "sugar-coated," as the author says, interspersed with anecdotes and illustrations, rendering it one of the most entertaining works ever published. "It will be read with zest," says the Herald, "on both sides of the Atlantic."

LAND DIRECTORY PATEN

You can ascertain if your invention is patentable by sending to GEORGE E. LEMON, of Washington, D. C., a description and rough sketch or (if you can) a model of your invention, and upon receipt of the same he will make an examination and inform you at the state of the same whether, in his aninion your invention is new and patental or the same and patental or the same was and patental or the same and patental or the same was and patental or the same and patental or the same was and patental or the same and he will make an examination and inform you at the whether, in his opinion, your invention is new and patentable, and if it is advisable to proceed with the case. For this information and examination no charge it made. If you desire a full report and copies of previous patents (if there are any) which appear to be similar to your invention, you should have made a Special Examination, the charge for said examination being $5. An inventor should always take advantage of this special examination before going to the expense of having a model made and filing formal application papers in the U. & Fatent Office.

WHAT WILL A PATENT COST P If, after a special examination, you are advised that your invention is patentable, send the estimated cost of the drawings and $15 to pay the first Government fee. The application will then be prepared, filed and prosecuted without further expense to the applicant until the Patent Office Examiner admits the patentability of the invention or the case is officially allowed.

After the application has been declared to be patentable the attorney's fee of $25 is due, but before the patent can issue a second Government fee of $10 must be paid, thus making the total cost of patent in ordinary cases (exclusive of drawings) $65.

A special examination and report will cost $5, which amount is applied as part of attorney's fee should an application for patent be proceeded with within 60 days from date of special report. from date of special report.

The attorney's fee is only contingent in cases where a

The attorney's fee is only contingent in cases where a special examination has first been made and a favorable report rendered.

Thus you know beforehand whether you are going to secure a patent or not, and no attorney's fee is charged unless a patent is obtained. An attorney whose fee depends on his success in obtaining a patent will not advise you that your invention is patentable unless it really is, so far as his best judgment can aid in determining the question; hence you can rely on the advice given after a special examination. Design Pritents and the Registration of Lalels, Trade-Marks and Reissnessecured. Cavents prepared and filed. Applications in revivor of Rejected, Abundoned or Forfeited ('ases made. Very often valuable inventions are saved in these classes of cases. If you have undertaken to secure your own patent and failed, a skillful handling of the case may lead to success. Send me a written request, addressed to the Commissioner of Patents, that he recognize George E. Lemon, of Washington, D. C., as your altorney in the case, giving the tifle of the invention and about the date of filing your application. An examination and report will cost you not be set. ney in the case, giving the title of the invention and about the date of filing your application. An examination and report will cost you nothing. Searches made for title to inventions—in fact, any information relating to patents promptly furnished. Copies of patents mailed at the regular Government rates (25c. each). Remember this office has been in successful operation since 1865, and you therefore reap the benefits of experience; besides, reference can be given to actual clients in almost every County in the United States upon request.

Opinions given regarding validity of patents; searches made; Assignments and Agreements drawn, and all patent business transacted.
